

Navigating Innovation through Effective Leadership

Midwest Leadership Institute

Whether your organization promotes a culture of innovation or finds itself operating in a sea of change, one thing is certain – strong leadership is essential to a successful outcome. As leaders work with their teams to manage emotions and achieve alignment, the application of these MLI foundational concepts are critical to achieving the desired outcomes.

This fall, join MLI faculty for a seminar designed to give government leaders an opportunity to apply MLI concepts to potentially unsettling or disruptive conditions brought on by innovative efforts or demands for change.

Presenters:

Bob Kiely
David Limardi
Daven Morrison, MD
Mike Skibbe

$650 for people who have attended a Spring MLI

$750 for all other registrants

Seminar Objectives:

Understanding what innovation is and the optimal response, timing, and configuration of any requisite change.

Recognizing and overcoming employees' resistance to change and the attached emotions.

Getting and keeping teams aligned and committed to a common purpose and goal throughout the process.

Case studies to explore the concepts presented.

General plenary sessions to engage all attendees in current leadership issues.
